

Subject: Fw: 202200438
From: Candace Curtis <occurtis@sbcglobal.net>
Date: 8/27/2024, 3:19 PM
To: Rik Munson <blowintough@att.net>

----- Forwarded Message -----

From: Candace Curtis <occurtis@sbcglobal.net>
To: James Spencer <james.spencer@texasbar.com>
Sent: Thursday, April 7, 2022 at 12:58:17 PM PDT
Subject: Re: 202200438

Good Afternoon Mr. Spencer,

Please find my Rebuttal to Mr. Mendel's answer attached. It has been 10 years since this franksuit started. I have always relied on the Fifth Circuit Opinion and the Temporary Injunction issued in the Southern District of Texas, as the law of the case. What has transpired over that time, can only be described as a travesty of justice.

A review of Mr. Mendel's cases in both the Harris County District Courts and the Probate Courts reveals an overabundance of of his unacceptable billing practices, with one in particular: that of not sending a bill to the client until the case has concluded, usually with a loss for his client.

At that point the client is shocked at the cost of the litigation and cannot pay the bill. Once that happens, Mr. Mendel sells the claim to himself as MLF-AR, his collections agency, and proceeds to sue his former client for the unpaid balance, plus interest, in addition to attorney fees for having had to sue his previous client to collect the fees.

There is a lot more that points to loan sharking and other usury, but that's not my problem.

Best regards,

Candace Curtis

(925) 759-9020

On Monday, April 4, 2022, 08:41:26 AM PDT, James Spencer <james.spencer@texasbar.com> wrote:

Ms. Curtis, you may send a rebuttal to Mr. Mendel's response. This week will be fine.

Respectfully,

James L. Spencer, II

Investigator

State Bar of Texas

Office of the Chief Disciplinary Counsel-Houston Region

713-758-8200 (Phone)

713-758-8292 (Fax)

From: Candace Curtis <occurtis@sbcglobal.net>
Sent: Monday, April 4, 2022 9:59 AM
To: James Spencer <James.Spencer@TEXASBAR.COM>
Subject: Re: 202200438

Good Morning Mr. Spencer,

I received Mr. Mendel's answer over the weekend. I need to reply in order to address a couple of materially false statements and to provide you with some additional documents to support my complaint. I should have it to you this week. Is that soon enough?

Thank you for your help.

Best regards,

Candace Curtis
(925) 759-9020

On Tuesday, March 8, 2022, 07:26:31 AM PST, James Spencer <james.spencer@texasbar.com> wrote:

Ms. Curtis, Mr. Mendel has only recently acknowledged receipt of the complaint notice, so he has yet to file his response with us.

You will receive notification when he provides his response, and you can let us know if you do not receive a copy from him.

Respectfully,

James L. Spencer, II

Investigator

State Bar of Texas

Office of the Chief Disciplinary Counsel-Houston Region

713-758-8200 (Phone)

713-758-8292 (Fax)

This e-mail and any files transmitted with it are confidential and are intended solely for the use of the individual or entity to whom they are addressed. If you are not the intended recipient or the person responsible for delivering the e-mail to the intended recipient, be advised that you have received this e-mail in error and that any use, dissemination, forwarding, printing, or copying of this e-mail is strictly prohibited. If you have received this e-mail in error, please immediately notify the sender at (713) 758-8200 and delete this e-mail message from your computer.

Please visit the State Bar of Texas' coronavirus information page at texasbar.com/coronavirus for timely resources and updates on bar-related events.

— image001.png —

— Attachments: —

Mendel Rebuttal cc.pdf	3.2 MB
image001.png	7.7 KB