

The Importance of Naming Beneficiaries

Naming primary and contingent beneficiaries is a simple way to ensure your assets are distributed to the people you've identified in the manner you intended. Beneficiary designations may also help avoid probate, the sometimes lengthy process of distributing an estate. If you've already named beneficiaries, periodically review that list to ensure a marriage, divorce, birth or death hasn't affected your choices. Contact your local Edward Jones office to review or update your beneficiary information.

Return to Market Volatility

Normally, stocks react positively to better economic growth. But we've seen occasional stock declines, as stronger growth suggests an earlier-than-expected reduction in the Federal Reserve's monthly bond purchases. You may want to consider reducing your allocation to long-term bonds if you own more than is appropriate. It may also be an opportunity to buy quality stocks at lower prices. Your financial advisor can discuss suitable options for you.

Your Estate Strategy

If you believe estate strategies are only for the wealthy, think again. Estate strategies are for those who want to decide for themselves how their assets will be distributed and who will benefit. Your Edward Jones financial advisor is not an estate planner and can't provide tax or legal advice, but he or she can work with an estate-planning attorney or qualified tax advisor to help you develop a comprehensive estate plan.

Don't put off this important planning opportunity.

About Your Account

Account Information – Your Account Agreement contains the complete conditions that govern your account. Please contact your financial advisor if you have any changes to your financial situation, contact information or investment objectives.

Account Safety – Please review your statement carefully. If you believe there are errors on your account, you must notify us promptly of your concerns. You may either contact our Client Relations department or your financial advisor. You should re-confirm any oral communication by sending us a letter within 30 days to protect your rights, including your rights under the Securities Investor Protection Act (SIPA).

Errors or Questions about your Electronic Transfers – Contact Client Relations at (800) 441-2357.

Complaints about Your Account – If you have a complaint please send a letter to Edward Jones, Attn: Complaints Dept., 1245 JJ Kelley Memorial Dr., St. Louis, MO 63131.

Withholding on Distributions or Withdrawals – Federal law requires Edward Jones to withhold income tax on distribution(s) from your retirement accounts and other plans unless you elect not to have withholding apply. You may elect a percentage to be withheld from your distribution or not to have the withholding apply by signing and dating the appropriate form and returning it to the address specified on the form. Your election will remain in effect until you change or revoke it by returning another signed and dated form. If you do not return the form by the date your distributions are scheduled to begin, Federal income tax will be withheld. If you do not have enough income tax withheld from your distributions, you may need to pay estimated tax. You may incur penalties if the amounts withheld and your estimated tax payments are not equal to the tax you owe. State withholding, if applicable, is subject to the state's withholding requirements.

Fair Market Value for Individual Retirement Accounts – Your fair market value as of December 31st will be reported to the IRS as required by law.

Rights to Your Free Credit Balance – You may ask to withdraw your free credit balance during normal business hours, subject to any indebtedness in your account. While your funds are not segregated, they are properly accounted for on our books. Edward Jones may use your free credit balance to conduct business.

Important disclosures and other information relating to your account(s) are available at www.edwardjones.com/disclosures.
