Year-round Tax-smart Investment Strategies

You can use tax-smart investing strategies throughout the year to help you reduce your tax bill while you work toward your financial goals. These include holding stocks for the long term, putting more money into tax-deferred retirement accounts, building Roth IRA assets and contributing or gifting to a 529 college savings plan. Learn more about these investing strategies at www.edwardjones.com/taxsmart and by talking to your financial advisor. Edward Jones, its employees and financial advisors do not offer tax or legal advice. Consult your estate-planning attorney and qualified tax advisor about your situation.

* Your approved credit is not a commitment to loan funds. It is based on the value of your Investment account which could change daily. The amount you may be eligible to borrow may differ from your approved credit. Borrowing against securities has its risks and is not appropriate for everyone. If the value of your collateral declines, you may be required to deposit cash or additional securities, or the securities in your account may be sold to meet the margin call. The interest rate will vary depending on the amount borrowed and will begin to accrue from the date of the loan and be charged to the account. A minimum account value is required if you have loan features on your account. Call your financial advisor today.

Our Advice on Inflation

Rising prices can be concerning because you must find ways to increase your income to afford the same standard of living. But the first step is to not overreact. We believe that if you own a well-diversified portfolio of quality investments, you may not need to do anything differently because you probably have an appropriate amount of fixed income and quality dividend-paying stocks. The Market Has Recovered: What's Next?

After two years of solid market gains, you may be wondering what comes next. We believe stocks have support to rise further, but it's important to maintain realistic expectations and expect a few bumps in the time ahead. Historically, the market drops 10% about once a year, so don't be surprised. To put that into perspective, if the Dow Jones Industrial Average (Dow) is about 12,000, a 10% correction would be a 1,200-point drop. While this may seem like a significant drop, especially after the volatile times of the past few years, we don't believe it's a reason for alarm or to abandon a long-term approach.

Reasons for Optimism — While market pullbacks can occur at any time for any reason, we don't believe you should move to the sidelines or wait to invest. Instead, we recommend you:

- Consider using any broad price declines to rebalance and add attractive investments, such as quality stocks, at lower prices
- Own an appropriate mix of quality stocks and bonds, and keep a long-term perspective with realistic expectations rather than getting caught up in daily price moves

Over the long term, stocks tend to follow the growth of the economy and corporate earnings, which are improving. However, in the short term, investor emotion can heavily influence them. Currently, that pendulum has swung back from fear toward the center, as investors remain wary but are becoming anxious that they've missed out and may feel the need to be aggressive to catch up.

Since we haven't had a short-term pullback in a while, the risk has increased. However, don't ignore the good news about the strength of corporate America and the growing economy. You're likely to find that easier to do if you own a well-diversified portfolio of quality investments that include an appropriate mix of stocks and bonds. About Your Account

Account Information — Your Account Agreement contains the complete conditions that govern your account. Please contact your financial advisor if you have any changes to your financial situation, contact information or investment objectives.

Account Safety — Please review your statement carefully. If you believe there are errors on your account, you must notify us promptly of your concerns. You may either contact our Client Relations department or your financial advisor. You should re-confirm any oral communication by sending us a letter within 30 days to protect your rights, including your rights under the Securities Investor Protection Act (SIPA).

Errors or Questions about your Electronic Transfers — Contact Client Relations at (800) 441-2357.

Complaints about Your Account — If you have a complaint please send a letter to Edward Jones, Attn: Complaints Dept., 1245 JJ Kelley Memorial Dr., St. Louis, MO 63131.

Withholding on Distributions or Withdrawals — Federal law requires Edward Jones to withhold income tax on distribution(s) from your retirement accounts and other plans unless you elect not to have withholding apply. You may elect a percentage to be withheld from your distribution or not to have the withholding apply by signing and dating the appropriate form and returning it to the address specified on the form. Your election will remain in effect until you change or revoke it by returning another signed and dated form. If you do not return the form by the date your distributions are scheduled to begin, Federal income tax will be withheld. If you do not have enough income tax withheld from your distributions, you may need to pay estimated tax. You may incur penalties if the amounts withheld and your estimated tax payments are not equal to the tax you owe. State withholding, if applicable, is subject to the state's withholding requirements.

Fair Market Value for Individual Retirement Accounts — Your fair market value as of December 31st will be reported to the IRS as required by law.

Rights to Your Free Credit Balance — You may ask to withdraw your free credit balance during normal business hours, subject to any indebtedness in your account. While your funds are not segregated, they are properly accounted for on our books. Edward Jones may use your free credit balance to conduct business.
