Bobbie,

I am having my client go through your 30 page list to let me know what she has, what never existed, what may exist in someone else's control, etc.

To make my response to you easier, can you send me this list (documents to be produced by Anita Brunsting) in Wordperfect or Microsoft Word format?

I am also advised your client was sent a copy of the trust, and the qualified beneficiary designation. as well as an initial asset list in Excel format. Were these provided to you?

Okay, if there is no farm management agreement then where are the engagement letters for John De Koster, who prepared the lease, and for Kroese & Kroese, who is acting on the Landlord's behalf? Did Kroese & Kroese negotiate the terms of the lease? If so, did they do this for free or were they paid a broker fee? Where in the lease does it reference the bonus payments for 2013-2014? Why are the signatures not notarized?

By the way, WHERE IS THE MONEY FOR THE MARCH 1ST PAYMENT? Oh, that's right I forgot, IT WENT TO PAY THE TAXES.

To my knowledge, there was never ANY written lease made or signed by our Dad. I need information from the County Recorder to file for the Century Farm Certificate so my assistant will be checking with them to see what is on file and obtain copies.

We are not aware of any farm management agreement in connection with the current lease, or related to any prior lease that may have been made by Elmer Brunsting. If you have some information to suggest otherwise, and which would help locate any agreement, please let me know.

Ms. Brunsting, if you retain counsel in connection with any of this litigation, please let us know of that fact and provide your attorney's contact information. I should not communicate with you directly if you are represented by counsel.

I asked for the tax returns to be sent yesterday and they weren't. The Decedent's Trust paid approximately $200 in taxes in 2011 and approximately $7000 of what had been paid in as estimated taxes in 2011 was credited to 2012 estimated taxes. So, you are saying that the taxes for the Decedent's Trust went from $200 to $30,000? What accounts for that? Where are the tax returns to back that up?

The hold up is either due to some shenanigans with signatures and notarizations they don't want us to see, OR THEY SIMPLY DON'T EXIST. I understand the Beyers have an agreement with Doyle (current farm tenant) to farm their 4 acres. I was mistaken before when I said he was not compensating them for it. I don't know if the agreement is verbal or has been memorialized in writing.

After looking at the Edward Jones stuff and prior years' tax returns, I think I can explain the giant tax liability without knowing squat about trust tax accounting OR seeing the 2012 returns. Anita, you were gambling with OUR money in May of 2012, probably trying to recover some of the misappropriated assets. You sold stock incurring capital gains and then bought something YOU thought would be more productive. See the attached profile where it says your prior investment experience is extensive. It also gives your net worth (not including your house) as $1.7 million, your annual income as $64,000, and your occupation as homemaker and your current employer as NA. Did you quit your job and start living entirely off OUR money? Since when did you become a millionaire? This just doesn't make sense. In fact, it's a joke. Everything you have touched is a mess.
