How To Balance Your Bank of America Account

FIRST, start with your Account Register/Checkbook:

- 1. List your Account Register/Checkbook Balance here
2. Subtract any service charges or other deductions not previously recorded that are listed on this statement
3. Add any credits not previously recorded that are listed on this statement (for example interest)
4. This is your NEW ACCOUNT REGISTER BALANCE

NOW, with your Account Statement:

- 1. List your Statement Ending Balance here
2. Add any deposits not shown on this statement

SUBTOTAL

- 3. List and total all outstanding checks, ATM, Check Card and other electronic withdrawals

Table with 3 columns: Checks, ATM, Check Card, Electronic Withdrawals. Each column has sub-columns for Date/Check # and Amount.

- 4. TOTAL OF OUTSTANDING CHECKS, ATM, Check Card and other electronic withdrawals
5. Subtract total outstanding checks, ATM, Check Card and other electronic withdrawals from Subtotal
This Balance should match your new Account Register Balance

Upon receipt of your statement, differences, if any, should be reported to the bank promptly in writing and in accordance with provisions in your deposit agreement.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION FOR BANK DEPOSIT ACCOUNTS

Change of Address. Please call us at the telephone number listed on the front of this statement to tell us about a change of address.

Deposit Agreement. When you opened your account, you received a deposit agreement and fee schedule and agreed that your account would be governed by the terms of these documents, as we may amend them from time to time.

Electronic Transfers: In case of errors or questions about your electronic transfers

If you think your statement or receipt is wrong or if you need more information about an electronic transfer (e.g., ATM transactions, direct deposits or withdrawals, point-of-sale transactions) on the statement or receipt, telephone or write us at the address and number listed on the front of this statement as soon as you can.

- * Tell us your name and account number.
* Describe the error or the transfer you are unsure about, and explain as clearly as you can why you believe there is an error or why you need more information.
* Tell us the dollar amount of the suspected error.

For consumer accounts used primarily for personal, family or household purposes, we will investigate your complaint and will correct any error promptly. If we take more than 10 business days (10 calendar days if you are a Massachusetts customer) (20 business days if you are a new customer, for electronic transfers occurring during the first 30 days after the first deposit is made to your account) to do this, we will recredit your account for the amount you think is in error, so that you will have use of the money during the time it takes us to complete our investigation.

For other accounts, we investigate, and if we find we have made an error, we credit your account at the conclusion of our investigation.

Reporting Other Problems. You must examine your statement carefully and promptly. You are in the best position to discover errors and unauthorized transactions on your account. If you fail to notify us in writing of suspected problems or unauthorized transactions within the time periods specified in the deposit agreement (which periods are no more than 60 days after we make the statement available to you and in some cases are 30 days or less), we are not liable to you for, and you agree not to make a claim against us for the problems or unauthorized transactions.

Direct Deposits. If you have arranged to have direct deposits made to your account at least once every 60 days from the same person or company, you may call us at the telephone number listed on the front of this statement to find out if the deposit was made as scheduled.
