Protect Yourself Against Fraud

Phishing (pronounced fishing), time share and charity – while these all sound pleasant enough, they are among the growing number of fraud scams aimed at parting investors from their money. Edward Jones offers several links on its Fraud Awareness and Prevention web page to alert you to some of the more common scams you may encounter and provide tips on how to protect yourself against them. To learn more, visit www.edwardjones.com/fraud.

About Your Account

Account Information – Your Account Agreement contains the complete conditions that govern your account. Please contact your financial advisor if you have any changes to your financial situation, contact information or investment objectives.

Account Safety – Please review your statement carefully. If you believe there are errors on your account, you must notify us promptly of your concerns. You may either contact our Client Relations department or your financial advisor. You should re-confirm any oral communication by sending us a letter within 30 days to protect your rights, including your rights under the Securities Investor Protection Act (SIPA).

Errors or Questions about your Electronic Transfers – Contact Client Relations at (800) 441-2357.

Complaints about Your Account – If you have a complaint please send a letter to Edward Jones, Attn: Complaints Dept., 1245 JJ Kelley Memorial Dr., St. Louis, MO 63131.

Withholding on Distributions or Withdrawals – Federal law requires Edward Jones to withhold income tax on distribution(s) from your retirement accounts and other plans unless you elect not to have withholding apply. You may elect a percentage to be withheld from your distribution or not to have the withholding apply by signing and dating the appropriate form and returning it to the address specified on the form. Your election will remain in effect until you change or revoke it by returning another signed and dated form. If you do not return the form by the date your distributions are scheduled to begin, Federal income tax will be withheld. If you do not have enough income tax withheld from your distributions, you may need to pay estimated tax. You may incur penalties if the amounts withheld and your estimated tax payments are not equal to the tax you owe. State withholding, if applicable, is subject to the state's withholding requirements.

Fair Market Value for Individual Retirement Accounts – Your fair market value as of December 31st will be reported to the IRS as required by law.

Rights to Your Free Credit Balance – You may ask to withdraw your free credit balance during normal business hours, subject to any indebtedness in your account. While your funds are not segregated, they are properly accounted for on our books. Edward Jones may use your free credit balance to conduct business.

Important disclosures and other information relating to your account(s) are available at www.edwardjones.com/disclosures.
