TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN:

In case of our demise these are the arrangements you need to make. First notify Bob Johnson at Chapelwood. We want him to do the funeral. We have prepaid arrangement at Memorial Oaks Cemetery but they will probably have further expenses you will need to pay. Depends on what you want. The caskets are already paid for. Folder on table. Short obit in paper. (It's expensive). Dad has already written his out, I think. Just say I as born near Sheldon, Iowa, Oct. 8, 1926. We met while attending Central College, Pella, Iowa. Elmer attended Iowa State in Ames after serving in the Navy for 2 years. While there he received a doctorate degree in Chemical Engineering. He went to work for Vulcan Copper and Supply in Cincinnati, Ohio, next Olin-Mathison in Niagara Falls, NY., next John Deere Fertilizer in Pryor O.K. where they lived 11 years. They have . 5 children—namely, and 7 grandchildren, namely—. That's about it. Take Candy's flying expenses out of our bank account and any extra expenses tht are needed. I believe Carl has authority to do that. Check book in folder. I want everyone to wear their Sunday best at the funeral. No t-shirts or jeans!!!! Contact Al Vasek's office for distribution of inheritance. Oh yes, let the cousins in Iowa and the Brunsting girls (Bette, Joyce, Lucille and Evelyn) know. I think if you just call Evelyn she can tell the rest. Also let Mrs. Barry Reynolds in Lubbock know. Her address is in the brown book as are all the rest. I'm taking it to Iowa but hopefully you can retrieve it. Cousins in Iowa are Mrs. Norman Vander Lee, Rock Rapids, Berdella Heemstra, Granville, Ray Diekevers, Hospers, Henry Rensink, Hospers, and Nelson Neiuwenhuis, Pioneer Home, Orange City, Iowa. And Leroy Ridders, Hull. And Rick Ridders, Sioux Center, and Rich ~~Beyer, Hull, (the farm)~~. That's about it, I think. Mother

*P. S. If you need a good lawyer for anything contact Wm (Bill Bailey)
His office is on Echo Lane. His wife Julie is also a lawyer. They're both honest.*

Nelva Erleen Brunsting died Friday, November 11, 2011 at the age of 85. Nelva was born on a farm near Sheldon, Iowa on October 8, 1926 to Sylvester and Harriet (Koolbeck) Rensink. She is survived by her children Candace Curtis of Martinez, California, Carole Brunsting of Houston, Carl Brunsting of Houston, Amy Brunsting of New Braunfels, and Anita Brunsting of Victoria, and seven grandchildren, Kevan and Andy Curtis, Marta Huntsman, Luke and Katie Riley, and Ann and Jack Brunsting, and one great grandchild, Haley Huntsman. Nelva graduated from Hospers High School and went on to Central College in Pella, Iowa where she met her husband, Elmer Brunsting. They were married May 24, 1946. They moved to Houston in 1967. Nelva was a homemaker and was active in the Chapelwood United Methodist Church where she was a member of the Chancel Choir, the Wedding Band Class, and a volunteer in the Memorial Area Ministries and served as day chairman for several years. She loved playing golf, bird watching and shelling. Her family would like to express their deepest thanks to her caregivers, Robert Cantu, Faustino Vasquez, and Katrina Harper, Dr. Ajay Jain, and the wonderful staff at Specialty Select Hospital West. In lieu of flowers, donations can be made to the World Wildlife Fund or the Chapelwood Foundation.
