I. CONTACT WITH COURT PERSONNEL

- A. All parties are expected to file documents through the District Court's Case Management/Electronic Case Filing ("CM/ECF") system. See S. D. Tex. Local R. 5.1 (as amended on Sept. 7, 2004) and Administrative Procedures for CM/ECF. Counsel is required to register to use the Court's CM/ECF system
- B. Case-related telephone and e-mail inquires should be made only to the Judge's Case Manager, Cynthia Horace, at (713) 250-5515 or cynthia_horace@txs.uscourts.gov.
- C. At the Court's direction, law clerks may contact counsel; however, they will not discuss matters beyond the subject matter of the call.
- D. The caseload will not allow the Case Manager to respond to casual telephone inquires regarding motions and case status. Therefore, information regarding the filing of documents, entry of orders, or docket entries may be obtained by contacting the United States District Clerk's Office at (713) 250-5500, or online through PACER. Counsel should refrain from seeking information that may be obtained by reviewing the Docket Control Order, Local Rules or Federal Rules of Civil Procedure.
- E. All correspondence regarding cases pending before Judge Hoyt must be addressed to:

Cynthia Horace, Case Manager to Judge Kenneth M. Hoyt
United States District Clerk
P. O. Box 61010
Houston, TX 77208-1010

- 1. Do not address substantive issues of law in letter form to the Court as they are not docketed or included in the appellate record.
- 2. Copies of urgent letters or briefs may be sent to Judge Hoyt's Chambers with a cover letter that specifies why the Court's prompt attention is required.

II. EMERGENCY MATTERS

- A. Applications for restraining orders or for other immediate relief shall be filed electronically through the CM/ECF system and all related communications with the Court must be made by contacting the Case Manager. All applications of this type shall be presented to the Court by the Case Manager following counsel's affirmation that the opposing party has been contacted and that both parties are available for a conference before the Court, or an explanation of why such contact is not legally required. Ex parte applications for restraining orders will not be entertained by the Court unless the requirements of Fed. R. Civ. P. 65(b) are satisfied.
- B. Motions to extend filing deadlines or "cut-off" dates are not emergencies.

III. CONTINUANCES

- A. Agreements, stipulations or joint motions for continuances among counsel are NOT binding on the Court and will be granted at the Court's discretion.
- B. The Court will attempt to accommodate vacation requests provided that they are submitted, by letter, to the Case Manager well in advance of the applicable court setting.
- C. Counsel are reminded that pursuant to The Civil Justice Reform Act of 1990, 28 U.S.C. § 473(b)(3), and the Cost and Delay Reduction Plan adopted by the Court on October 24, 1991, "all requests for extensions of deadlines for completion of discovery or for postponement of trial [must] be signed by the attorney and the party making the request."

IV. APPEARANCES AT SETTINGS

- A. Counsel is required to be punctual in attendance at all appearances before the Court.
- B. The attorney designated as "in charge" or an attorney familiar with the case who has authority to make decisions binding on the party represented must appear at all conferences, hearings, and at trial. Conferences and hearings are held in Courtroom 11A or by phone at the Court's discretion.
- C. Out-of-town counsel wishing to appear telephonically at a conference or hearing must submit a written request to the Case Manager well in advance of the applicable conference or hearing, with notice to the other counsel of record and any pro se parties. The Court will attempt to accommodate such requests.
- D. Counsel and/or pro se litigants shall notify the Case Manager of any matter before the Court that has been resolved immediately in writing or by e-mail at cynthia_horace@txs.uscourts.gov. Upon receipt of notice that a case has been settled, the Court may enter a conditional Order of Dismissal.

V. PRETRIAL CONFERENCES

A scheduling conference is set at the time the case is filed. Counsel may shorten the time frame by agreement. All scheduling conferences are conducted telephonically.

- A. Counsel shall prepare and file not less than 10 days before the conference, a joint discovery/case management plan for the conference containing the information called for on the attached form, as required by Rule 26(f).
- B. The Court will enter a scheduling order and may rule on any pending motions during the conference.
- C. Counsel who file or remove an action must serve a copy of the Order for Conference with the summons and complaint or with the notice of removal.
- D. Attendance or participation by an attorney who has authority to bind the party is required during the conference.
- E. Counsel should discuss with his/her client and opposing counsel whether alternative dispute resolution is appropriate and advise the Court of the results of their discussions.

VI. MOTION PRACTICE

The Court is of the opinion that most discovery disputes, especially those dealing with (1) scheduling, (2) the number, length, and form of oral and written questions, (3) the responsiveness of answers to oral and written questions, and (4) the mechanics of document production, including protective orders and the proper method for raising claims of privilege, can be resolved by counsel without the intervention of the Court.

In order to curtail undue delay in the administration of justice, the Court will not hear discovery motions unless moving counsel advises the Court, in a motion, that counsel have conferred in good faith but are unable to reach an agreement. Counsel shall also include the date, time, and place of such conference and the names of all parties participating. If counsel has been unable to confer because of the unavailability or unwillingness of opposing counsel, the motion should set forth the attempts to confer.

- A. The Court follows the written motion practice outlined in the Local Rules. Most motions will be ruled on without a hearing. The Court will consider the motion and response after the submission date. Discovery motions are generally handled on an expedited basis.
- B. The submission date may be extended by agreement of counsel except when the extension violates a court-imposed deadline. Counsel are to notify the Case Manager, in writing, of an agreement and submit an appropriate order.
- C. Every non-dispositive motion must contain a certificate of conference and a proposed order granting the relief requested. Failure to comply may result in the party's pleading being denied or stricken.
- D. All motions, except those filed pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 56, must be accompanied by a separate proposed order granting or denying the relief requested.
- E. Requests for oral arguments are unnecessary. The Case Manager will notify counsel should the Court determine that oral argument would be beneficial.
- F. The Court will not allow withdrawal of any attorney in charge without designation of substitute counsel.

VII. BRIEFS

- A. The Court requires concise, pertinent and well organized briefs and memoranda of law. Without leave of Court, all briefs or memoranda are limited to 25 pages. A moving party may file a brief or memorandum of law in reply to a respondent's brief. Without leave of the Court, a reply brief is limited to 15 pages. However, without leave of the Court, no further briefs, including a sur-reply, may be filed.

- B. Additionally, all briefs and memoranda must contain items 5, 6, 8 and 9 from the list set forth below. Any brief or memorandum that has more than 10 pages of argument must contain all of the following:
1. A brief or memorandum of law must be on 8 1/2 by 11 inch paper. The text must be double-spaced, but quotations more than two lines long may be indented and single-spaced. Headings and footnotes may be single-spaced. Margins must be at least one inch on all four sides
 2. No brief or motion shall be filed with the Court with a font or typeface smaller than twelve (12) point type. Footnotes may be in a font smaller than twelve (12) but not less than ten (10) point type.
 3. a table of contents setting forth the page number of each section, including all headings designated in the body of the brief or memorandum;
 4. a table of citations of cases, statutes, rules, textbooks and other authorities, alphabetically arranged;
 5. a short statement of the nature and stage of the proceeding;
 6. a statement of the issues to be ruled upon by the Court and, with respect to each issue, a short statement, supported by authority, of the standard of review;
 7. a short summary of the argument;
 8. headings succinctly setting forth separate sections of the argument; and
 9. a short conclusion stating the precise relief sought.
 10. The Court may disregard or strike a brief or memorandum that does not comply with this rule.
- C. Any brief, memorandum or motion that cites authorities not found in the United States Code, United States Supreme Court Reporter, Federal Reporter, Federal Rules Decisions, Federal Supplement, Southwestern Reporter Second or Third, or Vernon's Revised Statutes and Codes Annotated should have appended the relevant parts of such authorities (other than cases), and complete copies of cases. Copies of any affidavits, deposition testimony, or other discovery referred to should also be contained in the appendix. All appendices should contain a paginated table of contents and should be tabbed for easy location of the materials contained.
